We Welcome Your Letters:

The County Line Courier welcomes letters on topics of interest to our readers. Publishing of any letter is at the discretion of the editor. Any submitted articles, letters or features, may be edited for length, clarity, grammar and content. All letters must be signed with the writer's name and telephone number for verification purposes. Unsigned or anonymous letters will not be considered for publication. Short letters have more impact. Opinions expressed are those of the people who submit them and not necessarily those of The County Line Courier.

Are You Related To These WWI Soldiers?

by Daria Valkenburg

For the past year, Pieter Valkenburg, Branch Service Officer of the Royal Canadian Legion Borden-Carleton Branch, has been researching the names on the Legion's Cenotaph. With the 100th anniversary of the end of WWI coming up in 2018, Valkenburg asks you to look at the names listed below to see if someone is a relative. Perhaps you have photos or letters or diaries that can help with putting a face and story to these men.

The WWI names, in alphabetical order are:
